STAFF NEWS -

I am very sad to announce that Pat Pagett will be leaving our school kitchen at the end of the year. Pat has been serving our children for many, many years and we all wish her all the best in her retirement.

DAMAGE TO SCHOOL.

This week we were very disappointed to discover that our school roof had been damaged by thieves stealing lead flashing and sheets. The damage is in excess of £3000, not an amount the school wants to lose from its budget!

If you have any information regarding the theft please inform the police

NO CLUBS NEXT WEEK
ALL clubs (whether lunchtime or afterschool) will NOT run next week, the last week of term to allow teachers to complete end year meetings / jobs

LUNCH MENU -
Thursday will use the Friday menu instead of the menu advertised, i.e. Chips!

CLASS OF THE WEEK

The teachers have voted and persuaded.....
Class of the week goes to Bumblebees.
I could list 1001 reasons why but I will summarise it by saying they are just fantastic!

SUPER MATHLETE'S THIS WEEK ARE.....

Year 3, what a come back! This week you have really aimed to top up your class points before the end of the year. Mr G. is really proud of your fantastic enthusiasm.

THE FRIENDS – THANK YOU

If you were one of the fantastic Friends volunteers who spruced up our school over the weekend. THANK YOU!
You all worked incredibly hard to brighten up our school – Support such as yours is beyond measure!

Year 4 have produced some beautiful felt bird panels this term. They have taken great time and care in creating neat stitching and attaching different embellishments. They look beautiful!

CHARFIELD ART ON PUBLIC DISPLAY

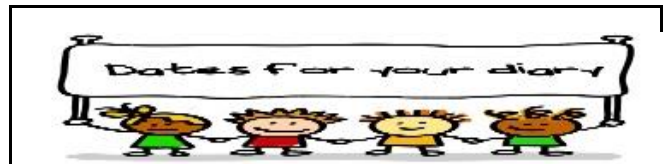

Go and have a look at Year 4's amazing, bright and colourful art in the bus shelter inspired by 90's prints. We hope it keeps our Charfield artist inspired during the Summer break!

MAKE £5 GROW

Did you manage to visit our Year 6 'Make £5 Grow' stalls?
We are very pleased to announce that the class has made a significant profit of £175.09 so far!
They are now re-planning what to spend the amount on as they have exceeded their expectations!
Thank you for supporting them. Not made it to the market yet? – The next market is Tuesday
