LEARNING AT CHARFIELD

Our last Learning At Charfield for 2012 comes from Ladybird Class (Y4).

The children have finished off their topic by experiencing a Victorian School Day in their classroom. The children dressed in costume and experienced the delights of wearing the dunce's hat, writing lines and copying writing with a fountain pen to name but a few activities. After discussion, the children decided that school nowadays wasn't actually so bad after all! Many thanks to parents for dressing their children so well for the day. It really added to the whole experience!

Rhiannon has written a little piece of non-fiction writing explaining all about punishments from research she did for our topic
