RED NOSE DAY – WEAR A NOSE ON YOUR CLOTHES FRIDAY 15TH MARCH

Our School Councillors would like to raise money for Red Nose Day and have come up with, 'WEAR A NOSE ON YOUR CLOTHES DAY'

"Our school is going to hold a cake sale and a mufti day. We would like you to donate some money for red nose day but you have to wear something to do with Red Nose day, like a badge, a red nose or a red nose on your clothes. If you are willing to make some cakes for us to sell, we would be very pleased, but please try to make them nut free because some of us are allergic to nuts. Thank you"

LEARNING AT CHARFIELD

This week's contribution comes from Grasshopper class (Y2) The class have written stories linked to 'The Singing Mermaid' by Julia Donaldson. Lauren J has written a great opening for her story

'On the beach of silver sands lives a mermaid. When she's on the beach of silver sands, she sits combing her golden hair. All she can hear is the gentle clapping of the waves. Every sea creature is listening to the beautiful voice of the singing mermaid whilst crabs are clicking their claws for more singing.'
